Attention: Chief Administrative Law Judge Richard L. Sippel

Motion To Permit Attendance by Teleconference

The undersigned, for “SkyTel-H” parties identified below, request to be permitted to attend the pre hearing conference set for next Tuesday, May 22, 2012 by teleconference arrangement, as was permitted in a previous pre hearing by for Judge Sippel.

The undersigned, Warren Havens, lives in California (and is there now), and cannot fly to Washington DC to attend in person, due to the requirements imposed by his managing many companies which requires him to remain in California at his offices all next week.

Mr. Havens seeks the opportunity to present the issues in the Report he filed today, in a manner and to the degree the Judge finds appropriate at the pre hearing. The Report shows the importance of those issues. While attorney Robert Jackson can attend in person for the SkyTel entities he represents ("SkyTel-O"), he does not represent the SkyTel-H parties identified below, and moreover, he cannot effectively enter a special appearance for them at the pre hearing since only Mr. Havens is daily active in, well informed of at this time, and able to effectively present most of the matters in the Report, and respond to any questions the Judge (and other parties) may have on those matters.

Mr. Havens is respectful and mindful of proper procedures in this regard. Also, there are limited parties at the pre hearing, which should allow Mr. Havens to participate to the degree the Judge finds appropriate.

Respectfully Submitted,

May 18, 2012
